

LOCAL MATTERS.

Weather Probabilities. October 22, 1880.—For the middle Atlantic states cloudy, threatening weather, with light rains, northeast to northwest winds, lower barometer and stationary or lower temperature.

A NEW DEPARTURE.—The marriage of Mr. Edgar Watkins to Miss Mattie England, at Falls Church, yesterday, was a very interesting affair. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity, and the presents were numerous and beautiful. The contracting parties were united in the hands of rector in the Episcopal Church, at that place, and not in the M. E. Church South as stated. An incident connected with the marriage caused some comment and looked very much like a new departure on the part of the Episcopal Church. It has long been a recognized fact that no minister other than a regular minister of the Episcopal Church is allowed to take part in any of the services of that church, and hence the surprise of the people assembled to witness the marriage to see seated within the chancel, without even being attired in an episcopal robe, the Rev. W. K. Boyle, of the M. E. Church South, of this city. Not only did he occupy a seat within the chancel, but he actually took part in the ceremony of uniting two hearts in one by calling for a blessing upon the young couple and pronouncing the benediction at the close. It is understood that Mr. Boyle was invited to take part in the services by the pastor in charge of the church, Rev. Mr. Page.

A VIRGINIA OUTRAGE.—The following episode from the colored postmaster at Negro Foot postoffice was received at the Postoffice Department, in Washington, yesterday:

"Sir: Please find enclosed a bill that was put upon my postoffice door a few days ago while I was out on a mission. It was a man that would not give his name to the public but he was seen to sit up at 10 o'clock on him please let me know if that any law to punish him for such conduct as to bring charges against him for it is the same as if within postal orders and sent through mails. I am yours and J. B. W. Newton, deputy P. M." The bill referred to is as follows: "Any man who will accuse his neighbors of stealing and won't come out and say who they are, or won't sign his name, is a coward. Mary Chizma."

THE ELECTION SUPERVISORS.—The appointment of election supervisors for this city causes some surprise, especially as Alexandria is not entitled to the great favor bestowed upon her, as she fails to come up to the provisions of the law under which they were appointed in point of population. "Who had them appointed?" and "Where did Judge Hughes get the names?" are the questions frequently asked. Mr. George L. Simpson, who was appointed to see the camps in the list, declines to serve, and another who is a registrar cannot well supervise his own work. It will not be very surprising to these supervisors to learn that there is no money out of which to pay them for their services.

ARMORY HALL.—J. Harry Shannon, the lawyer, will give an exhibition of his wonderful electricity powers at Armory Hall to night. The press of the country speak in the highest terms of the boy and the extraordinary feats given by him. The Philadelphia Press says: "His readers of the thoughts of the most eminent writers with a dignity and eloquence which cannot be surpassed." Among the selections to night will be "The Farewell to the Army." As the entertainment (well worthy the price of admission) is for the benefit of the Alexandria Light Infantry Building Company it is hoped a large audience will be present.

THE ASSAULT CASE.—Yesterday Charles Seales, colored, was fined $20 for assaulting the little son of Mr. Thomas Davis. Seales, as soon as he was released from custody swore out a warrant against Mr. Davis, charging him with assaulting his son with a stone, and this morning the case came up before Justice John C. Motter. Mr. Davis appeared for his wife. After hearing the evidence the justice decided to dismiss the case as defendant's (Davis) case, which decision, Seales says is a puzzle to him. He can't see why the rule of twenty men's work both ways.

SPRINGING TO-NIGHT.—J. Y. McDevitt, ex-Rep., of Lappanborough, democratic elector for the Eleventh Congressional District, and Judge Chase, T. O'Ferrall, of Rockingham, both original readers, men of reputation and standing in the State, and popular speakers, will address the people of this city to night on the political questions of the day, and in favor of the democratic electoral ticket. Should the weather prove unfavorable the meeting, which is announced to be held in front of the City Hotel, will take place in Sarepta Hall.

DEATH OF AN OLD PRINTER.—Captain Edward B. Robinson, one of the oldest printers in Washington, as well as one of the oldest residents, died yesterday morning in that city of paralysis. He was a native of Virginia, and learned his trade in Richmond. In 1861 he went to Richmond, where he remained during the war in the employment of the Confederate government. At one time he presented to the Confederate government an ingenious plan for capturing Fort Monroe. At the close of the war he returned to Washington.

CANVASSER APPOINTED.—The Conservative Committee held a conference at the office of the City Treasurer last night. The political condition of the city and county was freely talked over, and the committee agreed without transacting any business other than the appointment of Mr. E. H. Hawkins a canvasser, to look after and see that all unregistered voters are properly registered to-morrow. "Alexandria expects every man to do his duty in November."

REGISTRATION.—The registration books were opened and closed on Thursday last by Mr. Wm. Shreve, registrar for Scott Township, at West End, in Fairfax county, and it is understood that there were not more than five or six names added to the poll list. The registration books will be opened and closed both in this city and Falls Church to-morrow, and a failure to register on the part of those who are entitled to vote, and who are not on the list properly, will deprive them of a vote in November.

THE W. L. L.—The Washington Light Infantry passed through here last night, on their return to Washington from Atlanta, Ga., where they had been to participate in the dedication of the new armory of the Gate City Guards of that city. The members of the corps spoke of their visit in the most enthusiastic manner, and say they were entertained in grand style.

RETURNED.—Mr. J. E. Norris, of this city, has just returned from Scranton, Pa., where he has been put to a cold air refrigerator (Robert Partner's patent) in the brewery of Mr. P. Robinson at that place. Mr. Norris reports that so far as he can hear the supporters of Hancock and Garfield are about equally divided in the State, with the odds, if any, in favor of the democratic nominee.

FAREWELL SERMON.—Rabbi Sessler, of the Hebrew congregation of this city, who has accepted a call from the Hebrew congregation of Wheeling, W. Va., will preach his farewell sermon in the Synagogue on Washington street, this evening at half past five o'clock. Dr. Sessler, however, will not leave Alexandria for a couple of weeks yet.

She has schooner James B. Ogden, Captain Newbury, left the ship yard to-day for Georgetown, where she will take in a cargo of coal for Jersey City.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The County Court meets next Monday.

There were no cases at police headquarters this morning.

The new steamer, Excelsior passed down the river this morning for Quantico.

Mr. L. Brill sent to this office to-day a box of fried oysters which were nicely cooked, finely flavored and greatly enjoyed.

The body of the young man, Henry Patridge, who was drowned by the accident on the ship yard, last Tuesday, has not yet been recovered, and it is thought that it will not be until the middle of the week is hauled up, which will not take place until next week.

The coroner's jury summoned to view the body of Mr. Currier, whose sudden death at his house, in Arlington district, was mentioned in yesterday's Gazette, returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from a congestive chill some time between Monday and Wednesday.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday.

Register to-morrow.

ALL WELL.—City Sergeant William H. Smith returned from Richmond last night, whither he had been with Charles Scholier, convicted of forgery at the last term of the Corporation Court, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary. He reports that all the Alexandrians in the institution are well and in good spirits. O. S. Jefferson, who is serving out a term of imprisonment for forgery, says he is very well pleased with his quarters.

Don't forget to register to-morrow.

GARIBALDI'S POWER.—It is plain that Garibaldi is still a prominent figure in Italian politics. His son in law, Cazzio, was arrested and thrown into prison with many others for having taken part in revolutionary and seditious proceedings. There seems to have been no doubt whatever of his guilt. Nevertheless petitions from some members of the Italian Chamber of Deputies were made for his release. The government, however, stood out stoutly, and refused to grant the release. Much stress was laid on the fact that he was son in law to Garibaldi. Still the government was inexorable, though Garibaldi's old colleague and friend, the Premier, Nioxia, grew so heated on the subject, that he finally began to speak his mind, raise his voice and show that he still had teeth. Hisself and son suddenly resigned their seats in the Parliament of a land where, according to them, liberty was unknown. Oily enough, this magnanimous resignation was never made until the Cazzio affair. It was further announced that Garibaldi was to leave his place of exile and pay Italy a visit by way of Genoa, where his son in law was confined. Immediately the government made preparations as though against a hostile invasion, instead of one of its own pensioners. Garibaldi did land at Genoa, and was met and borne along in triumph by a crowd. He disdained to ask for Cazzio's release; but he received special friendly messages from Premier Cairoli. The sequel was what everybody who knows anything at all of Italian affairs must have expected—Cazzio was released without Garibaldi having even demanded his return to his seat. The exile will soon return to his seat, but without a doubt, what a Paris hackman would call a pour boire, from the government. The question for outsiders to determine is who is King of Italy—Humbert I. or Garibaldi I. 2.—N. Y. Graphic.

To-morrow is the only day you can register.

Declaration of War.

NEW YORK, October 22.—A London special to the World says of the speech delivered by the King of the Hellenes at the opening of the chambers yesterday that it is regarded in London as a distinct declaration of war against Turkey, and as such has made a great sensation.

Death of a Clergyman.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 22.—Rev. William Swan Pomeroy, D. D., LL. D., recently of Columbia, S. C., died this morning at two minutes past 3 o'clock at the Union Protestant Infirmary in this city of an affection of the bladder.

Railroad Accident.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—A railway train from Dortmund, Westphalia, to Berlin, to-day was precipitated down an embankment. Two persons were killed and twenty six injured.

The cost of Baltimore's sesqui centennial was $30,000. The cost of entertaining guests at hotels and elsewhere, independent of the luncheons served to the military and other organizations in the armory at the City Hall, was $2,600. The bill at the Rutaw House was about $900; at Barum's $300, and at the Carrollton over $100. A bill of $1,300 presented by the fire department for the entertainment of guests, &c., was reduced about $300 and paid. The hack bills, amounting to over $600 were also reduced.

The registration books in the different wards will be open to-morrow.
